ABOUT THE ELITE ATHLETE ADJUSTMENT SCHEME

The Elite Athlete Adjustment Scheme considers the impact of an applicant's sporting demands on their educational outcomes in the past 2 years. Elite athletes, coaches, and referees applying through QTAC to eligible courses offered by Griffith University, Queensland University of Technology and University of the Sunshine Coast may be eligible to receive adjustments to their selection rank or ATAR via this scheme.

The Elite Athlete Scheme is an application for adjustments only. It is not an application for a scholarship or other elite athlete study support. Applications for scholarships and other study support must be made directly to the institution. Please visit their website for more information and to apply.

ELIGIBILITY

To be considered for the Elite Athlete Adjustment Scheme, applicants must meet the following requirements:

- You must have undertaken study in the past 2 years 2022-2023. This study must be listed and assessed as part of your QTAC application.
- Participation in your sport at the required level must have taken place in the past 2 years 2022-2023.
- Participation in your sport must be at national or international level or at professional level/you are in the professional player development pathway.
- Your sport must be listed as recognised and funded by Sport Australia (sports that are not recognised and/or unfunded by Sport Australia may be considered and applications are encouraged).
- You must be identified and recognised as an elite athlete or professional athlete within your sport OR you must be a minimum of Talent 3 (T3) categorisation within Sport Australia's FTEM development framework.
- Coaches and referees/umpires must be involved at elite level to be considered.
- You must be able to verify your claim.

Who is not eligible for the Elite Athlete Adjustment Scheme?

- Applicants participating only in school sport competitions at any level are not eligible.
- Applicants participating at regional level or in state level competitions only.
- Applicants participating in a sport that requires training of a couple of sessions per week and giving up part of the weekend to compete (e.g. local sports club participation).
- Applicants who cannot verify their participation to the criteria listed above. Please see page 3 for verification requirements.

Please note that individual institution rules and considerations apply. Applicants may not be eligible for adjustments from all participating universities. Please visit the institution's website for more information.

Please visit the QTAC website for more information about the Elite Athlete Adjustment Scheme and for answers to frequently asked questions.
